EXHIBIT A
CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY
OF
PROJECT PIXEL ORBITAL

a California nonprofit public benefit corporation

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE AND RELATIONSHIP TO BYLAWS

1.1 The purpose of this Conflict of Interest Policy (this “Policy”) is to protect the interests of Project Pixel Orbital (the “Corporation”) when it contemplates entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a director or officer, and to implement Article 10 of the Bylaws of the Corporation (the “Bylaws”), Sections 5233 through 5236 of the California Corporations Code, and the requirements applicable to organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

1.2 This Policy supplements, and does not replace, the Bylaws and applicable law. If any provision of this Policy conflicts with the Bylaws or applicable law, the Bylaws or applicable law shall control. Consistent with Section 10.4 of the Bylaws, nothing in this Policy derogates from the duty of loyalty that every director and officer owes to the Corporation, and any conflict between this Policy and Article 11 of the Bylaws shall be resolved in favor of Article 11. Capitalized terms not defined in this Policy have the meanings given in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

2.1 Interested Person. Any director, officer, or member of a Committee with Board-delegated powers who has a direct or indirect Financial Interest, as defined below, is an “Interested Person.”

2.2 Financial Interest. A person has a “Financial Interest” if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or a Family Member: (a) an ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement; (b) a compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement; or (c) a potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial. A Financial Interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest; whether a conflict exists is determined under Section 3.3.

2.3 Material Financial Interest. A “material financial interest” has the meaning given in Section 10.1 of the Bylaws and Section 5233 of the California Corporations Code. As provided in Section 10.1.3 of the Bylaws, a director or officer shall not be deemed to have a material financial interest in a transaction (a) that fixes the compensation of a director as a director or officer; (b) that is part of a public or charitable program of the Corporation, is approved or authorized in good faith and without unjustified favoritism, and benefits one or more directors or their families only because they are in the class of persons intended to be benefited by the program; or (c) where the interested director has no actual knowledge of the transaction and it does not exceed the lesser of one percent of the gross receipts of the Corporation for the preceding year or $100,000.

2.4 Interested Party Transaction. A transaction described in Section 10.1.1 of the Bylaws.

2.5 Family Member. A person's sibling, ancestor, descendant, spouse or registered domestic partner, sibling-in-law, child-in-law, or parent-in-law.

2.6 Common Director. A director of the Corporation who is also a director of a corporation, firm or association with which the Corporation proposes to enter into a contract or other transaction, as described in Section 10.3 of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE III — PROCEDURES

3.1 Duty to Disclose. In accordance with Section 10.5 of the Bylaws, each director and officer shall disclose all material facts, including the existence of any Financial Interest, at any time an actual or potential conflict of interest arises, including when the director or officer knows of a potential Interested Party Transaction or a transaction involving a Common Director, and when the director or officer plans not to attend a meeting of the Board or a Committee at which he or she has reason to believe action will be taken on a matter as to which he or she may have a conflict. Disclosure shall be made to the Chairperson or the President or, if the conflict first arises at a Board or Committee meeting, to the entire Board or to the members of the Committee considering the matter.

3.2 Recusal. After disclosing the Financial Interest and answering any questions, the Interested Person shall leave the meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon, shall not vote on the matter, and shall not use his or her personal influence to affect the outcome. The vote of an Interested Person shall not be counted toward the vote required to approve the transaction or arrangement.

3.3 Determining Whether a Conflict Exists. The remaining directors or Committee members shall decide, by majority vote of those who are disinterested, whether a conflict of interest exists.

3.4 Approval by the Board. The Corporation shall not be a party to an Interested Party Transaction unless all of the requirements of Section 10.1.2.1 of the Bylaws are satisfied, namely that (a) the Corporation enters into the transaction for its own benefit; (b) the transaction is fair and reasonable to the Corporation at the time it is entered into; (c) before the transaction or any part of it is consummated, the Board authorizes or approves it in good faith, by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office (without counting the vote of any interested director), with knowledge of the material facts concerning the transaction and the interested director's or officer's financial interest; (d) before authorizing or approving the transaction, the Board considers and in good faith determines, after reasonable investigation, that the Corporation could not obtain a more advantageous arrangement with reasonable effort under the circumstances; and (e) the minutes reflect that the Board considered and made the findings described in clauses (a) through (d). The Board may appoint one or more disinterested persons or a disinterested Committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

3.5 Approval by a Committee. A Committee may approve an Interested Party Transaction only as permitted by Section 10.1.2.2 of the Bylaws: the Committee must approve the transaction consistently with the standards of Section 3.4; it must not have been reasonably practicable to obtain Board approval before entering into the transaction; and the Board, after determining in good faith that those conditions were satisfied, must ratify the transaction at its next meeting by a vote of a majority of the directors then in office, without counting the vote of any interested director.

3.6 Common Directors. A Common Director shall disclose the material facts of the transaction and of his or her other directorship. The Board or Committee shall authorize, approve or ratify any such transaction in good faith by a vote sufficient without counting the vote of the Common Director, or shall determine that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time it is authorized, approved or ratified, as provided in Section 10.3 of the Bylaws.

3.7 Violations. If the Board has reasonable cause to believe that a person has failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, it shall inform the person of the basis for that belief and afford the person an opportunity to explain. If, after hearing the response and making such further investigation as warranted, the Board determines that the person failed to disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate corrective action, which may include removal from office to the extent permitted by Sections 7.4 and 9.3 of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE IV — LOANS; COMPENSATION

4.1 Loans. The Corporation shall not make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any director or officer except as permitted by Section 10.2 of the Bylaws and Section 5236 of the California Corporations Code.

4.2 Directors. Directors shall serve without compensation for their services as directors, but may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses as approved by the Board, and may be compensated for services in another capacity only as permitted by Section 7.15 of the Bylaws, including the requirement that not more than 49% of the persons serving as directors be “interested persons” as defined in that Section.

4.3 Officers. Any compensation of officers shall be fixed and reviewed as provided in Section 9.7 of the Bylaws, shall be reasonable, and shall be paid only for services actually rendered in furtherance of the Corporation’s public benefit purposes. No director who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services shall vote on matters pertaining to his or her own compensation.

ARTICLE V — RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS; ANNUAL REPORT

5.1 The minutes of the Board and of every Committee with Board-delegated powers shall record (a) the names of the persons who disclosed or were otherwise found to have a Financial Interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the Financial Interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the Board's or Committee's decision; (b) the names of the persons present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives considered, and a record of any votes taken; and (c) the findings required by Section 10.1.2.1(e) of the Bylaws.

5.2 The Board shall cause the annual report required by Section 12.4 of the Bylaws to include the statements of interested-person transactions and of loans, guaranties, indemnifications and advances required by Sections 12.4(e) and 12.4(f) of the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI — ANNUAL STATEMENTS

6.1 Each director, officer, and member of a Committee with Board-delegated powers shall, promptly upon taking office and annually thereafter, sign a written statement affirming that the person has received a copy of this Policy, has read and understands it, has agreed to comply with it, and understands that the Corporation is charitable and, in order to maintain its federal tax exemption, must engage primarily in activities that accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes. The Secretary shall file the signed statements with the corporate records.

ARTICLE VII — PERIODIC REVIEWS

7.1 To ensure that the Corporation operates in a manner consistent with its charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, the Board shall periodically review (a) whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's-length bargaining; and (b) whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations or other outside parties conform to the Corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or an excess benefit transaction. The Board may use outside advisors in conducting such reviews, but doing so shall not relieve the Board of its responsibility for ensuring that periodic reviews are conducted.

ARTICLE VIII — AMENDMENT

8.1 The Board may amend this Policy by resolution, provided that the Policy as amended remains consistent with Article 10 of the Bylaws and applicable law.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I, the undersigned, certify that I am the duly elected and acting Secretary of Project Pixel Orbital, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation (the “Corporation”); that the foregoing Unanimous Written Consent of the Board of Directors in Lieu of Organizational Meeting, including Exhibit A thereto, is a true, correct and complete copy of the written consent duly adopted by all of the directors of the Corporation pursuant to Section 7.14 of the Bylaws of the Corporation and Section 5211(b) of the California Corporations Code, effective as of the date set forth therein; that such consent has been filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors; and that the resolutions set forth therein have not been amended, modified or rescinded and remain in full force and effect as of the date hereof.
